A dispatch from Chicago from his

when he was put on at Brown's gym-masium, he kayoed Kid Brown with the famous one-two punch in the third round, and Harry Gluck, well known in the spotting circles of Brooklyn, took the Washington youngster in charge.
Reinig is going along at a fast elin among the topnotchers of the Gotham city. Gluck is anxious to arrange a bout "The Country Kld" with some good boy before the Ardmore Club and is willing to concede five pounds in weight his opponent and to allow the citth to name the purse just to show his local friends that he is in line for the light-

In his New York bouts he is catalogued as fighting sixteen ten-round af forms, meeting among the topnot hers of the Gotham clubs Jimmy Dixon, Harlem Tommy Hopkins, Phil Cross, Kid Tucker, and Al Thomas, in which nouts he was given an even break by the newspaper decisions. Red and White Has Slight Shade on Clubs in Coming Championship.

GAMES START ON FRIDAY

By ARTHUR S. WREAN.

The local scholastic followers will get the first real glimpse at their respective school nines Friday when Central and Tech are scheduled to meet at the American League Park. From the present outlook most all of the contenders are weak in at least one department, and the question left unsettled is who will win the championship. Eastern for the past two years has romped away with the flag, and although the Easterners team is not up to the standard, their fight and willingness might again turn the trick In reviewing the work of the teams during the practice games Western is a slight favorite for the honor, although the dope may be upset. Coach Morse has a team composed mostly of veterans, who can field, and although weak in the line of pitching may offset this fact with timely hitting. The infield is fast to the man and with Palmer Stearnes as a guiding wheel, composes one of the mor well-balanced infields in the series. Tech-nical, although strong in the way of pitching, is weak in several positions, mostly of which are outfield jobs. Tech has had hard luck in this department through Tacks McCarthy, who put up such a stellar game last year, leaving school, entering the Army and Navy Prep School, with the intentions of course to School with the intentions of going t the Naval Academy. Eastern has lost b way of leaving school, as practically the whole of last year's infield departed at one time. Jeff Thornett, who is at present ineligible, being the only man left from last year. Coach Paul White's Business team can hardly be considered as dangerous, though they may prove the dark horse of the series. This team is compose mostly of new men and besides this fact are weak in the line of pitchers. > Many offers for the services of Luigi Thornett, a former Eastern High School boy, have been received by him and it would not be at all surprising to hear of his entering the professional ranks soon. Luigi played on two championship teams white at Eastern and was the shining light of the Blue and Grays' work. He can hit and field with the best best of them, and, in the opinion of many, will make good from the start.

Announcement was made last night of the Central athletes who will compose the two relay teams to represent the Blue and White in the Penn relay games at Philadelphia on April 23 and 24. Hyattsville, April II.—About thirty aspirants, responding to a call from Manager Charles Pionet, of the local team, assembled on the diamond near Zantzinger's Park this afternoon and engaged in a lively practice lasting over two hours. Those seeking positions on the first team are: Gilmore, Fenwick, Pionet, Williams, Brooke, Devlin, Sonnenberg, Johnson, Burnside, Kenneth Brrocks, Coates, Spadding, McClay, Griffith, MacNeil, Herring, V. Halloran, E. Halloran, Lanhardt, Vinterent, Parlette, Foster, Holden, Ralston, Hamilton, Pottinger, and Puller.

Of this array of talent eight are pitchers, three catchers, two first basemen, two second basemen, these shortstops, two third basemen, and the rest go outfielders. With such a wealth of material, Manager Floats is confident of developing a fast it, team. He would like to arrange games with teams in Washington and Rallimore.
